OregonASK Professional Development Descriptions

OregonASK offers virtual coaching and training for professional development for afterschool professionals.

Coaching	OregonASK educator coaching is a process that aims to improve performance and focuses on what afterschool professionals can do here and now to improve facilitation of curriculum and skill building after training. This process is meant to extend support for facilitators as they develop toward their goals for working with youth. An OregonASK trainer provides coaching to clients to consider goals and how to help clients meet them, reinforcing the clients growth with important resources and discussion.
Training	OregonASK Virtual Training includes one trainer, one technical support person, engaging online activities, handouts and action planning for up to 49 participants and two trainers for over 50 participants. All participants receive a certificate of completion.
