This training focuses on supporting youth with an Anti-Racist and Trauma Informed Care approaches that address structural and historic oppression and introduce the concept of how trauma affects people and their lives. This workshop outlines short-term and long-term effects of trauma, and other analyses of trauma and how it psychologically, socially and developmentally affects students.